Resolute Weekends

Our Best In house Programme Ever! (because it includes nearly £500 worth of free bonus goodies not offered on the other courses)

Resolute Weekends is our 'lock in' weekend workshop designed especially for church or choir teams.

Running over a weekend, this course brings together all the essential aspects from our workshops. The programme culminates on a Sunday Morning with your team's special presentation performance to your church or family and friends. Our Coach remains with you right until the end of Sunday performance, encouraging your team and following up last minute questions.

Subjects covered over the weekend include:

Vocal technique, building power into your group sound, vocal health, stage presence, efficient breath management, working with musicians, understanding music, harmonies, and much more

Workshops can be tailored to your requirements or we can put together a special programme that focuses on developing specific areas for development.

Praise and Worship

We view the praise and worship team or choir as a Christian Ministry, giving service unto God. With this in mind SOS always include an element of teaching on praise and worship within its church workshops. Primarily we speak about the different types of worship expressions and leadership. If you would like to speak to us regarding this please feel free to drop me a line at info@sosvocaltrainingbeds.co.uk

Any Size, One Price

Ok, we have to be careful here to explain. What we mean by any size, one price is if your choir has any where up to 25 members the price is the same. This way if you have 6 singers and 7 musicians the price doesn't change. You can add as many people in (up to 25) for the one same price.

For groups of 5 to 25 £299 (Fri - Sun)

For groups of 26+ £359 (Fri - Sun)

If your group has more than 40 members please call to discuss.
